

The 29th International Peace and Coexistence (IPC) Seminar

• Legacy of Palmyra: Dual Horizontal Inequalities in Sri Lankan Conflict

- Date & Time: 19 December 2023, 10:30 am-12:00 pm (JST)
- Place: Large Conference Room, IDEC building)
- Open to all!

Language: English

Moderator: Tatsuo Yamane, Associate Professor, Hiroshima University

Title: Legacy of Palmyra: Dual Horizontal Inequalities in Sri Lankan Conflict

Speaker: Dr. Ajith Balasooriya, Senior Lecturer, University of Colombo

Ajith Balasooriya (Dr.)

Dr. Ajith Balasooriya has been a Senior Lecturer at the since 2009. He obtained his

School of International Development and Cooperation (SIDC). He has been teaching for both undergraduate and postgraduate courses on international law, human rights, and peace.

He is the coordinator of the General Degree/Study Stream, which is a newly introduced in the Department of International Studies. He served as the Director of Studies in the Faculty of Arts from July 2018. He was awarded as a Visiting Research Fellow at the Asia-Pacific Alliance (AUA) to carry out a collaborative research project in Yangon in Myanmar in 2020.